February 19, 2025

The District and CSEA 885 began successor negotiations on February 19, 2025. This meeting introduced Diana Dominguez, the newly elected union president. The union's bargaining priorities include securing a fair and equitable contract for drivers, with specific concerns related to wages, benefits, longevity language, and field trips.

The District presented ground rules, which the union acknowledged as already being in practice. The new executive board will review these rules and provide feedback before the next scheduled meeting on March 5.
