

Mrs. Ponte's Weekly Newsletter

Dear Families,

Students will begin working on a written essay to support all the research they have completed through the Exhibition process so far. As we end the “research” phase of Exhibition, students will be working less in class and more at home. Thank you for your support.

On Wednesday, we will walk to the Stockton Arena to see the Stockton Kings! Students need to bring a brown bag lunch and wear comfortable shoes for walking.

Important Dates

Feb 24-29th: Penny Spirit Week

Feb 26th: Stockton Kings Field Trip

March 12th: IB Parent Meeting

March 13th: Spring Pictures and 5th Grade Promotion Pictures

March 16th – 20th: SUSD Spring Break

Learner Profile Trait of the Month:

Balanced

Balanced learners understand the importance of intellectual, physical, and emotional balance to achieve personal well-being for themselves and others.

Math News

This week students will have daily homework to review multiplying and dividing decimals. Please check with your child if they say they have no homework. ☺

Thank you!

Students should continue to work on “My Path” at home as part of their daily homework routine. Students can earn a Popcorn and Movie party by scoring 100% on their My Path lessons.

What's happening with Exhibition?

This week, students will share the research they've conducted so far and begin a written essay summarizing all of their research.

Due Monday 2/24: Second “Parent Homework” due. Your child will bring this home on Thursday, Feb 20th.

Due Wednesday 2/26: Third “Research Summary” will be due and students will present to their peers again.

School Uniforms

Our principal and support staff have asked that we monitor student uniforms more closely starting now. Please help me out by making sure your child is in uniform each day, including jackets – which should be solid color blue, black, or Falcon wear. Thank you for your help!
