Language Development Office

The Language Development Office has the responsibility for overseeing, monitoring, and supporting the Language Development Program. The staff provides ongoing professional learning, coaching, modeling, coteaching and co-planning, and monitoring of all EL programs in the district.

We provide teachers and other district members with the opportunity for professional learning and coaching pertaining to English Language Development (both integrated and designated), differentiation of instruction, and state compliance. We are dedicated to advocating for English learners by focusing on their academic achievement, language fluency, and self-empowerment.

Other areas we specialize in

- Translation and Interpretation
- Migrant Education Program
- Parent Engagement: ELAC, DELAC, Migrant PAC
- Reclassification & State Compliance
- Dual Immersion & State Seal of Biliteracy

Welcome to the 2023-2024 school year!
